

PRODUCT DATA SHEET

Single desk cable tray for Adapt and Fuze desks 1200mm - white

ED12SCT-WH

Comprising a sturdy steel subframe and bench tops which take on a floating appearance, Adapt offers a clean and minimal look to the workplace. Desk legs can be shared, making it an aesthetically pleasing, cost effective and practical system for high density office spaces. The Adapt benching solution is a real stand out in the modern office environment.

PRODUCT FEATURES

- Cable management tray to use on single straight desks to improve office aesthetics and safety
- Cables can run along the tray for effective cable management and preventing cluttered wires
- Positioned under the desk so cables are out of the way but easily accessible
- Available in silver, white and black to match frame colours
